

The Louisiana Election.

Brilliant Whig Victory in N. Orleans. We have New Orleans dates to the 11th. The Whig majority in that city is 1149. Gain, upwards of 950 votes. This too, in a city which casts but about 2500 votes. The lowest Whig candidate on the Legislative Ticket received a majority of 1064, on the highest Van Buren ticket. This result astounded both friends and foes. The Bulletin says that Louisiana may now be considered safe for Harrison.

White's majority for Congress in the First District, will not be much less than 2000 votes. With regard to the two other Congressional Districts, the intelligence is yet uncertain. The Bee has a statement which elects Dawson the Van Buren candidate by 13 majority. The contest was very close. This District has long been regarded as the strong-hold of Loco Focoism.

The result is yet uncertain in the Third Congressional District. The candidates were Winn (V. B.) and Moore (Whig.)

The Globe claims the election of the former by a small majority; but the returns in the N. Orleans papers are favorable to the Whigs. Taking the Van Buren accounts, however, as correct with regard to the three Congressional Districts, the Harrison majority is very considerable. The Bee says that White's majority is ample to allow the election of Van Burenites in the other two Districts, and yet give the State to Harrison by more than a thousand.

The Senate will, in all probability, consist of 9 Whigs and 8 Loco Focos. The Whigs, it is also thought, will elect a majority of the members of the House.

The Bee says that under all the circumstances, we consider the Legislature safe.—Should this news be fully confirmed, we may with confidence put down Louisiana for the Hero of the Thames.

New Orleans was brilliantly illuminated on the night of the 10th, and a salute of 100 guns fired in honor of the Harrison victory. Pa. Inquirer.

A Slander Refuted.

THE BUCKEYE BLACKSMITH.

Mr. John W. Baer, the "Buckeye Blacksmith," has been made the object of fierce and unremitting persecution. The most infamous and improbable slanders concerning him have been propagated through the press and orally. We invite the attention of the public, and the particular attention of those who have been engaged in the dissemination of these slanders, to the annexed statement.—This statement was produced by a gentleman of this place, who has given us permission to publish it.—Mr. Baer as he himself told the people, is a plain obscure man, who is known only in his own neighborhood; it was consequently more easy to fabricate slanders concerning him, and more difficult for him to rebut them. If he had travelled in a coach attended by servants, and been known as one of the magnates of the land, these Federal gentry would have been less hasty in forming unfavorable opinions of him.

The subjoined certificate is signed by the most respectable citizens of South Bloomfield, the village in which he has his home. Mr. Baer left with us when he was here last, a letter of recommendation, bearing the name of some of the most distinguished citizens of Ohio, which letter may be seen at this office. Some of the names attached to the subjoined certificate are hardly legible, and may be printed incorrectly.

SOUTH BLOOMFIELD, June 26th, 1840.

We the undersigned citizens of South Bloomfield, Pickaway county, Ohio, learn with regret that our fellow citizen John W. Baer, has been slandered in the vilest manner by the press and otherwise, at the East; and having been requested to state what we know concerning him, do certify to all whom it may concern that he has lived amongst us, and that we have been acquainted with him for more than three years and that he is just what he professes to be, JOHN W. BAER, a poor but honest and industrious blacksmith; that he has a respectable family, which he has supported by laboring at his trade and that alone; that he has never been known by any other name but John W. Baer; that he is not a defaulter, and that he is not guilty of larceny or any other crime or act that will prevent his returning to this neighborhood whenever he pleases as pretended by those who slander and abuse him, and that we are credibly informed that Mr. Baer sustained the same character in other counties where he resided before he settled with us. Nothing but a desire to have justice done to every honest man and worthy American citizen, has prompted us to make the above declaration.

CIRCLEVILLE, June 29, 1840.

I am acquainted with the most of the signers of the foregoing, and know them to be among the most respectable of the citizens of the township in which they reside, and to the extent of my knowledge fully corroborate their statements.

W. B. RIALI.

Respected Sir:—In conformity to your request, I have obtained the necessary information on the subject of our friend, John W. Baer, and in presenting the above communication, I would only add, that you can put the utmost confidence in the statements there made for the character and veracity of the gentlemen who have affixed their signatures to the above statement is the strongest guarantee I could give you for its correctness, having a personal acquaintance with every individual, as also with John W. Baer, the Blacksmith of whom I know nothing, but that he is an honest sober and industrious man. This was signed by a Methodist preacher.—Frederick Examiner.

Van Burenism.—The The Claremont (N. H. Eagle publishes the following letter from Mr. Hubbard of the United States Senate, to the Postmaster at Claremont the original of which the Editor of the paper has in his possession. That little document—short and sweet was enclosed in a package of franks covering Hubbard's speech and Kendall's address &c. &c. recently received at that Post Office.

SENATOR HUBBARD TO JONATHAN NYE POSTMASTER AT CLAREMONT.

"Will friend Nye have the kindness to superscribe the enclosed franks to such of our party that he may select and oblige HENRY HUBBARD.

The Eagle says, "Friend Nye being at this time altogether too feeble and imbecile to do any thing, the above has been handed to us his committee."

The Editor of the New Orleans Sun says very many witty things in favor of the ladies, and sometimes gives some wholesome truths; witness the following:

A woman may say what she likes to you, without running the risk of getting knocked down for it.

She can take a snooze after dinner, while her husband has to go to work.

She can dress herself in neat and tidy calicos for a dollar which her husband has to earn and fork over.

She can go forth into the streets without being invited to treat at every coffee house.

She can paint her face if too pale, or flour it if too red.

She can stay at home in time of war, and wed if her husband is kilt.

She can wear corsets if too thick, and other fixins if too thin.

She can eat drink and be merry without its costing her a cent.

She can get divorced from her husband whenever she sees any one she like better.

And she can run him in debt all over until he warns the public by advertisements, not to trust her on his account.

PRENTICE-JANA.—If any of our political friends have Holland's life of Van Buren, let them keep an eye upon it. Certain Loco loco emissaries are burning every copy they can borrow, beg, buy, or steal.

To what do the signs of the times point now? Globe.

They point to Gen. Harrison's election as true as the needle to the pole or a leg-treasurer's nose to Texas.—Prentice.

What will the Whigs say when they are told that Mr. Kendall adds a thousand to his subscription list daily?—Va. Reformer.

We shall say what we always said—that he is the greatest adder in Christendom.—Prentice.

When I am at a Whig meeting I instinctively put my hand upon my pocket.—Dr. Duncan. Pshaw, Doctor! No body wishes to steal your whiskey bottle.—Prentice CAUTION.

PUBLIC OPINION from whose decision there is no appeal, has been so often and so loudly manifested in favor of BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS, that it is not surprising there should be found in almost every city, town, and village in the United States, persons so depraved at heart, and so utterly devoid of the principal of moral rectitude, as to manufacture a spurious article, and palm it off on the unsuspecting public as the genuine medicine, from the result of which so many happy results have been accrued to humanity. It is painful to think that an inestimable good should be product of direct and immediate evil—but so it is.

The very excellence of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, has in some respects, opened a species of high-way through which cupidity and avarice carry on their depredations without check—and notwithstanding the frequency of exposure already made—notwithstanding the indelible disgrace which has been heaped upon counterfeit druggists—notwithstanding the large amount of human suffering which has been the consequence of this imposition and fraud, druggists continue to carry on this revolting traffic; and counterfeits are as numerous and as varied in the market as if no denunciation had ever been made, and public indignation never been expressed.

Since, however, this destructive evil still exists, and neither the fear of God, nor of earthly punishment, can entirely put it down, it becomes my imperative duty again and again to caution the public against purchasing pills of a druggist, professing to be Brandreth's Pills for as under no circumstances is any of this class made an Agent, it follows of course that the Pills sold at such places professing to be Brandreth's Pills are universally base counterfeits, highly injurious to the health of the People.

Established Agents for the GENUINE Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, are INVARIABLY furnished with an engraved certificate, signed, B. BRANDRETH, M. D. in my own hand writing. This certificate is renewed every year and when over twelve months old, it no longer guarantees the genuineness of the medicine. It would be well, therefore for purchasers carefully to examine the certificate, the seal of which is neatly embossed on the paper, in order at least that the safeguard of imposition may not at least be susceptible of imitation.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Jeffersonian Republican,

A new Weekly Paper, to be published at Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa., and Milford, Pike County, Pa., simultaneously.

The whole art of Government consists in the art of being honest.—Jefferson.

THE JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN in principle, will be all its title purports, the firm and unwavering advocate of the principles and doctrines of the democratic party, delineated by the illustrious JEFFERSON: the right of the people to think, to speak, and to act, independently, on all subjects, holding themselves responsible to no power for the free exercise of this right, but their God, their Country, and her Laws, which they themselves have created.—A free and untrammelled Press, conducted in a spirit worthy of our institutions, is a public blessing, a safeguard to the Constitution under which we live, and it should be cherished and supported by every true republican. Such, then, it is designed to make the paper now established, and as such, the publisher calls upon the enlightened citizens of Monroe and Pike to aid him in this laudable enterprise. The paper has arrived when the Press should take a bold and fearless stand against the evidently increasing moral and political degeneracy of the day, and endeavor, by a fair, candid, and honorable course, to remove those barriers which sectional prejudices, party spirit, and party animosity have reared to mar the social relations of men without accomplishing any paramount good.

THE JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN will not seek to lead or follow any faction, or to advocate and support the schemes of any particular set of men. It will speak independently on all State and National questions, awarding to each that support which its merits may demand, never hesitating, however, to condemn such measures, as in the opinion of the editor is justly warranted, holding as a first principle: "The greatest good to the greatest number."

Believing that the great principles of democracy are disregarded by the present Chief Magistrate of the Nation, MARTIN VAN BUREN, the JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN, will decidedly, but honorably oppose his re-election to the high and responsible station which he now holds.

It will firmly oppose the "Independent Treasury" Scheme, and all other schemes having for their object the concentration in the hands of one man, and that man the President of the Nation, all power over the public moneys, a power, which, when combined with that vested in him by the Constitution as Commander-in-Chief of the American forces, Military and Naval, together with an enormous official patronage, would render him more powerful than the Executive of the British Nation, and in short make our Government, de facto an Elective Monarchy.

It will ever maintain that the welfare of our Country and the preservation of her Republic Institutions should be the first and only sentiments of our hearts in the choice of our public servants; that honesty, fidelity, and capability, are the only true tests of merit; that all men are created equal, and, therefore, should alike enjoy the privileges conferred on them by the Constitution without being subject to proscription, or coerced by the influence of party.

The columns of the JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN will ever be open to the free discussion of all political questions, believing as we do, that there is no liberty where both sides may not be heard, and where one portion of freemen are denied the privilege of declaring their sentiments through the medium of the Press, because they differ from the majority.

THE JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN will ever take a lively interest in the affairs of Monroe and Pike, and of the Senatorial and Congressional Districts with which they are connected.

The Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, and the Laborer, will each find a friend in the columns of the JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN. Due care will be taken to furnish its readers with the latest Foreign and Domestic News, and such Miscellaneous reading as will be both interesting and instructive. In short it is designed to make the paper worthy of an extensive patronage, both from the strictly moral tone which it will ever possess, and the efforts of the editor to make it a good and useful Family Newspaper.

The JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN will be printed on a super-royal sheet of good quality, and with good type.

TERMS—$2 in advance; $2.25 at the end of six months, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year. No subscription taken for a less term than six months.
